Gillmore – a rich history of design excellence

Established by Charles Gillmore in 2001 the Gillmore furniture brand is an established supplier to the UK's interior designers and discerning homeowners. Synonymous with contemporary British design, each Gillmore furniture product is designed in-house and manufactured to exacting standards.

Being a batch producer, the company is able to offer immediate delivery of its products from stock and maintain realistic price points, meaning after two decades the brand continues its founding mission of creating unique and accessible high end design.
